TO ADVERTISERS.

The attention of Advertisers is respectfully drawn to the fact that a copy of the China Mail has for some time past been placed on board of every Steamer and Sailing Vessel on arrival in this Harbour. Facilities which have recently been placed within the reach of Captains and Officers of Ships have resulted in a material increase to the Subscription List of the Mail amongst the shipping in port; and as special arrangements have been made to increase the usefulness of the Shipping List and to extend the circulation in the Bay, these advantages will be at once apparent to Advertisers.

Orders may be sent to GEO. MURRAY BAIN, China Mail Office.

THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1876.

It appears that Cambodia has become the theatre of another rebellion, which, according to the earlier advices, threatened to have grave results. From what we can learn of its origin it seems to have been set on foot by a brother of the reigning king. He is reported to have escaped from the Court of Siam, where he had been retained as a prisoner, and to have gathered a numerous band of partisans round him in the province of Campong Soai. The objects of the rebel Prince are said to be to gain the adhesion of the inhabitants as he proceeds towards the capital, and on his arrival there to dethrone the king—not a very brotherly act. The rebels appear to have made a very good beginning in their proceedings. It is said that their first encounter has been with three Europeans, who were travelling in the interior. These voyageurs—Dr Harmand, whose name is well known as a traveller, Mr Hunter, an Englishman and M. Fourours of Saigon—suddenly found themselves attacked by about a hundred and fifty Cambodians, but by their gallantry and superiority of arms they held their assailants in check until they were able to elude them. The French have sent troops to the King's aid, and great activity was being displayed at Phnom Penh in making preparations for quelling the rebellion. Later advices received by the Indépendant de Saigon of the rising represent it as being up to the present confined to the province of Campong Soai on the frontiers of Laos. Although commerce has not yet been seriously affected by the rebellion, yet it is feared that if the present state of things is prolonged it will be more or less paralysed. It is hoped, however, that on the arrival of the Governor, Admiral Duperré, who was expected at Saigon by the incoming French Mail, immediate steps will be taken to suppress the rebellion, and to
